

Letter of No Objection

To whom it may concern

This letter is intended for use by Australian citizens in place of previously issued letters of no objection.

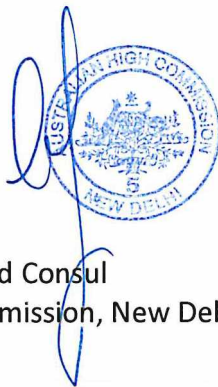

In accordance with the Australian Government's policy, the Australian High Commission, New Delhi does not issue personalised letters of no objection for Australian citizens.

The Australian Government has no objection to:

- An Australian citizen legally obtaining a driver's licence
- An Australian citizen opening a bank account
- An Australian citizen purchasing a mobile phone
- An Australian citizen pursuing higher education or undertaking an exchange study program in India
- An Australian citizen applying for a visa for any country
- An Australian citizen legally working in an Indian institution
- An Australian citizen legally conducting a business in India
- An Australian citizen accessing the National Archives or a library

Australian citizens do not require prior approval from the Australian High Commission or Australian consulates in India for any of the above activities.

Yours faithfully,

Second Secretary and Consul
Australian High Commission, New Delhi
