

Australian High Commission
India

To whom it may concern

This letter is intended for use by Australian citizens in place of previously issued letter of no objection.

The Australian Government has no objection to:

An Australian citizen legally obtain a driver's licence.

An Australian citizen opening a bank account.

An Australian citizen purchasing a mobile phone.

An Australian citizen pursuing secondary/ higher education or undertaking an exchange program in India.

An Australian citizen applying for a visa for any country.

An Australian citizen legally working in an Indian institution.

An Australian citizen legally conducting a business in India.

An Australian citizen accessing the National Archives or any other Indian library.

Australian citizens do not require prior approval from the Australian High Commission or Australian Consulate-Generals in India for any of the above activity.

Yours faithfully

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of a series of loops and a long horizontal stroke.

Second Secretary & Consul
Australian High Commission
New Delhi, India

26 April 2024